Special One Day Bhandara August 15, 2012 in Manapakkam, Chennai

On the 11th August 2012, Master asked Br. Kamlesh Patel to summon an extraordinary meeting of the Working Committee of the Mission on 15th August at Babuji Memorial Ashram, Manapakkam, Chennai. The next evening, Master called the Manapakkam ashram manager and informed him of his decision to have a special one day bhandara in Manapakkam ashram on the same day. He dictated a letter to be sent out to all abhyasis. Three satsanghs were planned for at 6:30 a.m., 11:00 a.m. and 4:30 p.m.

Master had undergone a trying period of treatment from the 5th of July for infections of the urinary tract and intestines and had suffered untold pain uncomplainingly as usual and it was an anxious time for abhyasis of the Mission as well. Deprived of normal food intake, he had lost weight and had become immobile in bed for the longest period in his life. His call for a bhandara therefore, surprised abhyasis the world over, but the call from his heart brought twenty-one thousand abhyasis within two days, to Manapakkam!

Master's news

Br. Kamlesh Patel's appointment as Vice-President of the Mission

The morning 6:30 a.m. satsangh was conducted by Br. Kamlesh Patel lasting for an hour. When the satsangh was over and abhyasis started coming out of the meditation hall, the view from meditation hall was a sight to see. Calmness and self-discipline prevailed and not one abhyasi tried to break the rhythm, and none tried to go into the cottage to see Master.

Around 10.30 a.m., Master arrived in a wheelchair equipped with an oxygen cylinder to assist his breathing. The recent illness seemed to have taken a very strong toll on his physical being and he seemed to have become considerably weakened, with every word or movement a strain on his physical system.

Master spoke about his current illness and how it had affected him. He said that he would like to resign from the post of President of the Mission and appoint Br. Kamlesh Patel in his place. He asked the working committee members if they would agree to this, but they suggested a different alternative that Master should continue to be the President and may make Br. Kamlesh Patel the Vice President.

Master asked for the opinion of the assembly who expressed their support by applause all round. He said that the Vice President shall exercise the powers, duties and responsibilities of the President under Master's direct guidance and supervision. After this, he conducted a short sitting which lasted for about 15 minutes and then he went back to the cottage.

The evening satsangh was conducted by Br. Kamlesh Patel, and before the satsangh, the Secretary and Joint Secretary of the Mission clarified the morning's events and the resolution passed by the working committee recording the appointment of Br. Kamlesh Patel as Vice President of the Mission was read out to the assembly. After satsangh, Br. Kamlesh Patel gave a talk and made two important points: first that one does not need any position or title to do Mission work or to serve the Mission, and the other was about how "Unity and Harmony" was the need of the hour, and this had to be maintained among brothers and sisters at all times, at all costs and under all circumstances. He also shared with abhyasis how happy Master was when he was told that twenty-one thousand people attended the bhandara.

The prevailing mood among the faithful devotees was one of relief since Master had dropped his original intention of resignation and had graciously agreed to continue at the helm of affairs. At the same time he was taking an important step to lighten the heavy administrative burden by shifting much of it to the younger shoulders of his nominated successor.

Kamlesh Patel, Closing Session, Special Bhandara

15 August 2012, Chennai

Respected elders, dear sisters and brothers,

“There is nothing new that I am going to share today that has not already been shared by our Secretary and the Joint Secretary of our Mission, Shri Bajpaiji and Durai Sir.

I'd like to point out that it is not the position of president or the title of vice-president that makes any of us work for the Mission. There are legal requirements, so we fulfil them. When our Master sent a note to our beloved Babuji Maharaj for his guidance, stating his inability to work the way he had been working over the years, it was not to find out what position to fulfil or what position to create. It was only the way to find how the work could go on without interruption. So, please, let us not debate on positions and titles.

I am reminded of a talk given by Swami Vivekananda almost over a hundred years back. He was trying to highlight the profound qualities of various religions. He said, “Look at a Christian. What does it signify? A true Christian is full of compassion and love. Christianity represents that: compassion and love. What does Islam represent? Unshakeable brotherhood – no one can penetrate the brotherhood that bonds two brothers together; they may not have a blood relationship. The uniqueness of Hinduism is their bhakti (their devotion), the aspect of dharma [righteousness].” So that kept me thinking about how will the future recognise Sahaj Marg. I was thinking and thinking for, I would say, many months together, and recently one of the messages from Babuji Maharaj came with an answer – such a beautiful answer!

“Sahaj Marg will be known for its iconic quality: unity. This unity in turn will give birth to many other values that we have not yet foreseen, we have not even thought about. Such values will be taking birth once we remain united.”

So when Babuji Maharaj gives us a message, we have to read between the lines and figure out what he is really trying to convey to us. Being united also means not to have any discord – but that is the negative side of it. Our focus should only be this: how to defuse anything that can destroy this unity? A pre-emptive strike before we are in trouble.

Once there was a discussion in Master's office about some unwanted quarrel between two abhyasi brothers of long standing in the Mission. That really disturbed Master. And Master came up with a very telling statement that you must maintain harmony and peace between two spiritual brothers at any cost. The price that you pay is not very high since, even if you have to give up your spouse in return for maintaining harmony and peace, it is still too cheap. The need of the hour I see as only this: how to remain united with our hearts totally absorbed in Master's love, and let not anything else corrupt it.

That is all I want to say today. Thank you all. And I must share this with you also that Master was very, very, very happy when I told him that there are twenty-one thousand abhyasis in this Manapakkam hall. He was moved, and he said, "Look at this, not even two days notice and they are all here. They are my people!"

Thank you.

Rev. Master's 86th birthday celebrations National Seminar in Garopaba – Santa Catarina - Brazil

By Regine Kohler – Rio de Janeiro - Brazil

“On the outside, the seminar in Garopaba was just like any other. We arrived around 3:00 p.m., had lunch at a pleasant restaurant on the beach, and afterwards checked in at the “Residencial Dornelles”. The sunny afternoon was an invitation for a walk on the beach, and as the abhyasis began to arrive, the joy among us only grew. However, in spiritual dimensions, the seminar was a voyage to other worlds. Since the very first satsangh, on Friday evening, July 20th, I was taken to a profound state, never felt before. All I wished was to remain in silence, immersed in this sublime state, enjoying each moment of it. On that very day we received the first news about Master's poor health condition, and a feeling of worry and sadness, mixed with a strong feeling of confidence overcame me. More than ever, his presence permeated everything and everyone.

Saturday (July 21st), the first day, was a day of adjustments. The restlessness and anxieties, the edges and discomfort were worked upon and dissolved, and by the end of the day we were feeling fine, more adjusted, in harmony, and once again during the satsangh we were carried to other inexplicable realms inside our hearts.

At the same time, we were alert to every piece of news coming from India regarding our beloved Master's health, praying for his prompt recovery. We followed the seminar's schedule diligently; its focus was “cleaning”. The subject was thoroughly studied and tried out, many doubts were clarified, and from the background, He followed everything.

On Sunday (July 22nd), we ended the workshop with Master's answers to the different questions on the subject, which for me was nothing compared to the immersion I experienced in that new and inexplicable energy hovering all over the place. For some abhyasis it was already time to say good-bye and I felt sorry for them, for having to leave such a blessing atmosphere.

On Monday (July 23rd), it felt as if we were living in the time zone of India since we were all in a mood of celebration, a great inner celebration felt within. We experienced extended moments of silence, when life outside mattered very little, words were meaningless - all that mattered was our unity with Him, encroaching on us so intensely that we felt intoxicated by His love.

In the afternoon we visited the Passarim Reserve, a natural resort of unique beauty, owned by Christopher, an abhyasi from the Garopaba group. All of us agreed that this place would be ideal for a spiritual retreat. (<http://www.reservapassarim.org/>).

On Tuesday, (July 24th) following the morning satsangh, the group separated quickly, each one going his own way, and many of us still had the opportunity of attending a satsangh, in the evening, in some other centre.

With love and gratitude”

A radiant day

By Jenny Maldonado Guzmán - Rengo Chile

“Before doing my cleaning today, Sunday, September 9th, I wanted to share with you how happy, how full of love and enthusiasm, my heart is. I communicate this from the beautiful land where snow-capped mountains surround our beloved town called Rengo, located in the center of the long and narrow country that is my dear Chile.

These days we are more than before, we are now ten people more. We are ten beings with the interest, the will, and the dream to have wings and fly on the path of spirituality, the path lovingly offered to us as Sahaj Marg.

Today, I am more convinced than ever that this is the way and along with our sisters and brothers, our preceptor, and the guiding, protective, and loving hands of our Master, we can make progress, become better, as more integrated persons, and thus join and influence a healthier, more thoughtful and more loving environment.

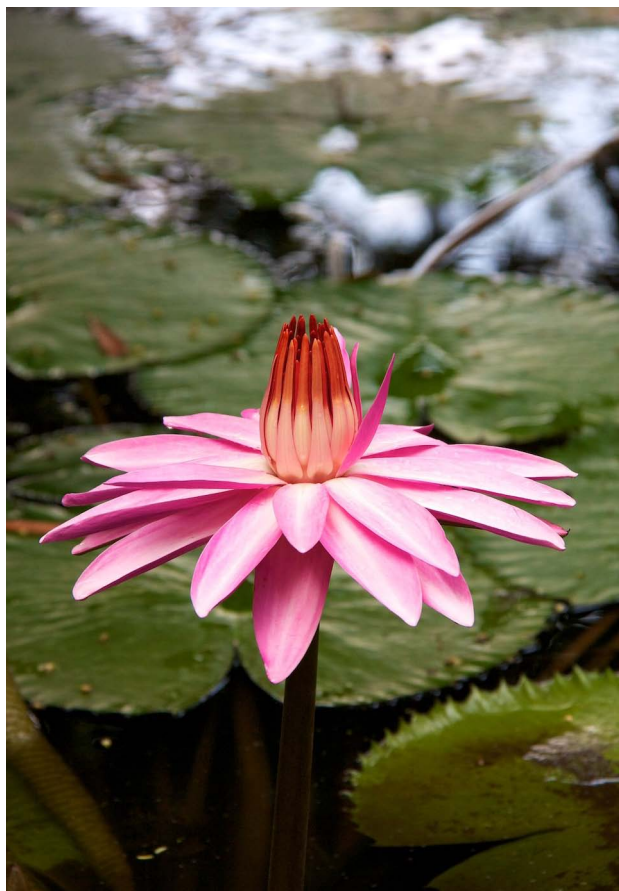

With a fraternal embrace.”

My development in Sahaj Marg

By Marcela Umanzor Quintanilla - Rancagua, Chile

“The truth is that years ago, when I first entered the Mission, I felt it was an important moment in my life. Never the less, I knew I was not mature enough to experience the real significance that it entailed. After a short break, I resumed my participation and feelings for the Mission, which allowed me to analyze myself and see that while there had not been the physical state of practice, the values and principles of Sahaj Marg, as guidelines of life, had been kept. And, it still made sense to me, as in the beginning when I joined the practice. However, my stage of life was different, I was now confronted by a maternal role in the family and living with my husband.

These changes were not only made visible, but also felt. They were experiences that enriched and strengthened me in my participation in the Mission.

Without a doubt the Master is very wise and never stops working on us. He has supported us from the time before we started the practice. Every moment and change in my life has been blessed by him. And, I don't doubt that the changes that may come in the future will also be as valuable and meaningful as those I experienced before.

Moreover, I never expected that my family would also become part of this path. For me, the process has been very enjoyable since my life partner is also an abhyasi, who has strengthened us all every day as a family.

With fond affection for all the sisters and brothers of Latin America.

The language of the heart

By Patricia Plus, Fort de France, Martinique

"A particular link ties me to the island of Haiti, or more precisely to our brothers and sisters who live there.

This time, the trip there allowed me to experience the language of the heart with them through the trainings on the teachings of our Masters. We started the training on the Cleaning on Saturday in French. Then, after noticing that some people needed a translation into Creole, the idea to continue in Creole was proposed and accepted. What a wonderful idea to open the hearts and remove the differences. The feeling of freedom to be part of and to be loved was felt and could circulate without boundaries, without separation, everyone could speak and be heard as he is and as he feels.

We had only one language, the one of the heart to heart. All this was done with freshness, spontaneity and simplicity.

I want to share with you the first Haitian Creole sentence I learned: "Bonjou, or Kouman jee?"

Thanks to Our Master for making these moments unforgettable."

An Open Letter to Master

By Catherine Johnson, Jamaica Centre

August 31, 2012-08-31

Dear Beloved Master,

Pranams!

“Without you I cannot imagine what my life would be. I am very blessed to have attracted you in my life; so blessed to have recognized a personality so giving, loving, so forgiving, so simple yet so powerful, so distant yet omnipresent and omniscient.

The saying goes that, “You are to me the best thing since sliced bread”.

I am in acceptance and in awe of my life’s transformation. I am sure that if it weren’t for you nothing would be possible. When I look at ALL the challenges with which I have been through and continue to forego I know, without a doubt, that the small self is obsolete.

Dear Master, there is nothing too difficult that I cannot face anymore because I have placed it ALL on you to bear. So far, you have never failed me yet.

Thank you Master for being my EVERYTHING. Transformation of man is the only avenue to God realization. May your will continue to be done.

Devotedly”

The brotherhood

By Patrice Gowdie, Kingston, Jamaica

“On June 13, 2012, abhyasis met at the Dileeps’ residence for our Wednesday satsangh. Our brother and sister not only opened up their home to us, they also opened up their hearts. Upon arrival, we were greeted with much love and warmth and we were equally happy to be there to fellowship with each other. Shortly after settling in, we had satsangh followed by a viewing of a video on Sahaj Marg in America. There was utter feeling of love and brotherhood in the air. We then shared and partook of the refreshment that was prepared for all of us; a part of the menu was Indian which we enjoyed very much.

On Saturday July 7, bright and early, abhyasis family and friends converged at 4 Downer Avenue. This was our meeting point to undertake a trip to a water park we had been planning for weeks before. We got our things together, did our headcount and soon we were off to Somerset Falls, Portland! The journey down was exciting too as we had snack/food and picture taking stops.

At Somerset, both adults and children were all like children at heart as we opened up ourselves to all the place had to offer. We enjoyed the beautiful natural setting of Somerset Falls. It has a water fall, pool, river rafting, beautiful flowers and exotic animals, fun, games and food! In addition to all the fun and frolic, Master was at work. The trip was planned to encourage and develop love and brotherhood amongst each other. And amongst all the activities, there were also individual sittings given- the purpose of the trip was attained, plus more.

Following Somerset Falls, we had our extended day satsangh, Sunday July 8. We had satsangh, reading and sharing; then unanimously, we decided to go to Sister Bobbie’s place for the rest of the day’s activities, as per her request. At Sister Bobbie’s, we had our individual meditation followed by some sumptuous food prepared for us by our dear Sister. Our Sister is a great cook and the food was great. We then shared extensively on our theme for the day, the Goal. We also shared on events in our lives and on our experience in doing the practice. The environment was one of togetherness, love and brotherhood. Finally, we sat for close of day satsangh. Master took good care of us with food for the physical body and food for the soul.”

Let the Heart Speak

Jamaica Seminar workshop on Cleaning and Meditation

By Abbey Gibbs, Kingston

“I believe that in order for abhyasis to be dedicated in their practice they should not only possess the will to do so but they need to be knowledgeable of the proper way to do it.

Thanks to Master, this was made possible by having a seminar held at Hunny Bay, Priory, Jamaica from September 14th to September 16th 2012. This training seminar was on the topics of ‘Cleaning’ and ‘Meditation’. I was so happy for the experience and my other brothers and sisters expressed the same since this was the wisdom we all needed. Not to say that literature is not accessible but for me coming together and being honest and sharing my experience with an open heart and mind and listening to the experiences of others puts it all into perspective the importance of this Natural Path and the steps to be taken in reaching the Ultimate. Questions were asked and ultimately answers were given making sure that all understood. None was left out, ignored, criticized or put down. Respect was real and I have gained a new found attitude and love towards my spiritual path.

It came to me that if our daily living was as organized and as wrapped around spirituality as this seminar was; imagine how much closer we would be to that divine light within us!... Waking up at 4 a.m. for meditation, satsangh at 7:30 a.m, breakfast in Constant Remembrance, training on meditation and cleaning, breaks for tea and yet still in Constant Remembrance and it goes on! There is always time for Master at any time in the day and the excuse I once had of being too busy now makes not much sense to me.

I extend my sincere thanks to sisters Marie, Yolaine and Claudia as well as to our Jamaican prefect sister Catherine and to all the other ten abhyasis who attended. We all made it possible by His grace :)

Love to all.”

A way to correct the trajectory

By Louisianne Mafoula, Fort de France

From the 1st to the 3rd of August four abhyasis, including one who was introduced the first day, gathered at the prefect's home.

I realized during these three days that it is beneficial to participate, as often as possible, in these kind of gatherings. These moments spent in meditation, sitings and cleanings in an ideal atmosphere helped me sit up. It was like those plants with a guardian.

This allows the trajectory to be corrected. There were some emotional moments of friction, but all these brought me to assess myself and by his grace "correct the trajectory".

More than a week later, I still feel the benefits of these moments where Master's presence was constant. This helps us build trust in him and it shows how he loves us. He gives us so much and I would even say All. Since then, I fervently practice more with conviction and with a strong desire to be like him.

Thanks to you beloved Master from the bottom of my heart; thank you for being there."

His great work

By Marie France Rosalie, Fort de France

I give thanks to God for the privilege of having a living Master in this life time, in the person of Shri Parthasarathi Rajagopalachari and by allowing me to really realize that I am just a dust of atom serving to the build his "Great Work".

My earthly journey began on August 15, 1964 when I started to constantly ask my mother why she had taken me "here", on earth. I had a strong sense of being punished. The fact of being "here" was a punishment for me because of the idea of an "elsewhere" that was strongly implemented in me. My mother, whom I considered as my first guru, used to tell me that if I was "here" it is because there was a good reason for me to be "here". And I used to always argue by asking: what is it? I don't see anything, based on my understanding at that time;

"Good things do not last and bad things last forever" to express my childish thinking. Her answer was always again and again: "One day, you will know the reason why, for now what I can tell you is that God is hidden in your heart".

There is no word on earth that can describe what I feel to be blessed to have a living Master who does not hesitate to feed me despite the weakness of his physical body. Thanks for everything and for his teachings. His physical body decays but his spirit gives life. "My strength is made perfect in your weakness because my grace is sufficient for you", says the Bible. And this my Lord demonstrated it during this special gathering on Wednesday, August 15, 2012. I bow to his holy feet. Pranams"

Seminar in Maracaibo

By Lucila Guerrero, Mérida, Venezuela

“On the 6th, 7th and 8th of July there was a seminar in the city of Maracaibo that was attended by abhyasis from various parts of Venezuela, Colombia, and along with the participation of our dear sister Surapu Bani. From my city, Merida (located in the Venezuelan Andes) it takes seven hours to travel by car to reach Maracaibo. During the days leading up to the seminar, I was thinking about the long journey and the poor road conditions, and I almost gave up my plan. But, in the end I finally decided to go.

We arrived at the meeting place on that Saturday afternoon in June. The place was situated on the outskirts of the city, on a farm with many fruit trees. It was cool and calm. I was assigned a dormitory room with 6 other sisters with only one bathroom. I said to myself, “This is not going to be comfortable.” It turned out, as if by magic, that everyone had their own timing and I never felt uncomfortable. Everything flowed perfectly.

The seminar gave us an opportunity to play together (because we were asked to take quizzes and give answers), to laugh together, to analyze what is our true self-discipline, and finally to meditate together. The most beautiful part of the seminar was those unforgettable satsanghs where it seemed as though time stood still. It was as if the Master had known that we would not see each other again soon and filled us up with his subtle energy, that reached every particle of our being.

Upon completion of the satsanghs no one wanted to get up, because that subtle energy was still everywhere, filling everything. It's a feeling that was indescribable and can not be expressed in words.

Finally I was very glad not to have stayed at home, and to have attended the seminar. Now-a-days I feel revitalized and strengthened in my faith in this system of Sahaj Marg.

With a strong embrace.”
